

Additional Requirements for Miscellaneous Products and Seating Systems

Only manufacturers are given an opportunity to submit their products for approval. Their products or activities in the miscellaneous category such as event related activities should be recognised and tested worldwide.

If the test results are positive, the manufacturer may be awarded a FIBA Study Centre Certificate.

The tests must meet the minimum FIBA requirements for the specific product category. All tests performed are at the expense of the manufacturer.